

Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

This statement is a response to Section 54(1), Part 6 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Rocket Lawyer's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31 December 2020.

Introduction

Rocket Lawyer UK Limited ('Rocket Lawyer', 'we' or 'us') is committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking violations in its own operations, its supply chain, and its products. We have zero tolerance towards slavery and require our supply chain to comply with our values.

Rocket Lawyer is an online legal technology company and one of the most widely used legal services in the world. We provide individuals and small to medium-sized businesses with online legal services, including legal documents and affordable legal advice. For more information about us, please visit <https://www.rocketlawyer.com/about-us.rl>.

Our approach

Rocket Lawyer prohibits human trafficking and the use of involuntary labour. We are equally committed to working with our suppliers to drive common high standards and employment practices.

Due to the majority of our supply chain being based in the UK, US and in lower risk industries, such as internet software and services, our exposure to risk is low.

We do not act as a producer, manufacturer or retailer of physical goods and have no supply chains in relation to such activities.

Due diligence is undertaken by Rocket Lawyer to ensure that we only engage with reputable suppliers, and Rocket Lawyer employees are required to assist with due diligence during the onboarding process. Any concerns raised by our employees are handled by Rocket Lawyer's legal department.

Rocket Lawyer expects all of its suppliers to meet legal and ethical standards as a condition of doing business with us.

Signature:  _____

Charles L. Moore, Founder and CEO, Rocket Lawyer

Date: 04/15/2021